LONDON, Aug. 27.—The British steamer Elbruz, from Baltimore, August 11th, arrived at Antwerp to-day. The Sea Serpent arrived at Coverock in the English channel on August 5th. The Minister sent a number of tele grams this morning spreading far and wide the glad tiding reported in the victory of the Chilian government. The dispatch received here by the Chilian Minister announcing the deleat of the insurgents at Vina-del-Mar was shown to Foster, one of the insurgent representatives, this morning, and that gentleman was asked if he had beard anything from his party. He replied he had received the following cablegram from their agent late last night: "Iquique, 26th .-Notices inspired by the dictator's agents in Lima are absolutely without authorization." This, Foster said, probably referred to the reported defeat of his party.

"I do not say the dispatch received by the Chilian Minister is not correct," be continued, "but I think in the case of the battle fought on the 26th and won by Balmaceda, he would not have delayed so long in spreading the news."

Foster also took into consideration that the forces of Balmaceda greatly outnumbered those of the insurgents, but said that in case the insurgent party were defeated, it only meant a rolongation of the war, and that the insurgent forces would be increased in every way possible and the dictator fought to the end. Man Killed

Сию (Cal.), August 27.—Charles Rowe shot and killed Geo. Waller at the Junction at 1:30 o'clock this morning. Rowe was appointed special peliceman for fair week. Last night coming to the end of his beat he went into a saloon at the Junction for lunch. Waller came in and asked Rowe to drink. The latter refused and went out to the pump to drink which made Waller angry, and Waller came out, showed a knife in his right hand, put one hand in his back pock and advanced toward Rowe calling him names. He was told to stop and throw up his hands, but would not do it. When five foot away Rowe drew his gun and shot. Waller ran about half a block and fell into the slough. He managed to crawl out on the other side and was picked up and taken to his residence, but died shortly after. A 3%-calibre ball entered to the right and above the navel, ranging backward through the liver, breaking the skin on the back to the right of the spine. Rowe surrendered and is in jail. Waller leaves a wife and two children.

GRANADA (Nicaragua), Apg. 26.-On Sunday President Roberto Sacasa tried to rid himself of his most prominent opponents, and at the same time nip in the bud a possibly growing revolution. There have been whispers of an impending attempt to oust him, and he took a bold step and arrested ex-President Chammorro, ex-Presi-dent Zavala, Don Anselmo Rivas, editor of the leading newspaper of the country; Don Enrique Guzman, son of General Gusman, and Don J. D. Customs Circular to Suit Rodrigues, formerly attached to the Legation at Washington. The arrests caused great excitement in Granada, and the prison was attacked. The exact number of the casualities is not known, but it is reported the Chief Officer of Pelice and at least six soldiers were killed and about fifty citizens shot. The prisoners were subsequently brought to Managua, where they were sentenced to be escorted across the frontier and ordered never to return to the country under penalty of death. Granada has been placed in a state of siege. As some of the prisoners belong to wealthy and important families in Nicaragua, the matter has caused excitement, and further trouble is expected. The present political troubles do not affect the progress of the work on the maritime canal, though Don Rodriguez, one of the exiled, is known to have been a bitter enemy of the American enterprise. This opposition is said to have grown from a snubbing which Rodriguez thought he received from the American Secretary of State while attached to the Legation at Washington.

Has Respected Rights.

By Cable and Associa LONDON, Aug. 26.-The London Times is unable to arouse the jealousy of the South American Republics toward the United States, which its course has intended. An attache of the Chilean Legation says: "The United States has respected the rights of Chile more faithfully than, or at impression in that country, which cannot fail to be favorable to the great North American Republic. The sentiment toward America has underjumped a trestle near here early this morning. The train plunged into a ravine two hundrd feet in depth, have been the most active abettors of the rebellion, and of the three mer executed at Valparaiso for heading a plot to destroy the Government, one was a native of Great Britain and another of Austria. If Europe had acted as the United States has acted, the war would have been over long ago and peace restored in Chile."

MASON VALLEY.

A Nevada Valley Where Land Is

Mason Valley, Lyon county, is cerapples would in three years time return a handsome profit on the investment. It would cost to prepare the ground, that is, plow and harrow it seven or eight times and plant the trees—70 to the acre, 25 feet apart—about $30,000 the first year; of this amount 15 cents each would go to buy trees. The second year it would cost about $15,000 to care for the 1,000 acres, and the third a like sum, mak-could supply as fine apples and pears as can be grown anywhere, and they would command as good prices in the market. The C. & C., V. & T. and Southern Pacific companies would no doubt make a very liberal rate on fruit if asked to do so, and there is no reason why Mason Valley should not be suntying the coast with the harbe supplying the coast with the har-dier varieties of fruit four years from this time if the right men come along, willing to make the venture. The finest kind of land with water can be bought for $5 per acre. The GAZETTE has looked into the question of late and is satisfied that no field on the coast presents finer opportunities than does Mason Valley. Here follows FARMERS OF THAT SECTION

Say regarding the climate, productiveness of the soil, etc.: W. B. Sanders rately than in any other locality in says: "No failure in the apple crop for twenty years. I have been in the valley for 25 years and the following are among the greatest amounts raised on an acre in one season: Wheat, 60 bushels; barley, 80 bushels; potatoes, 14 tons; alfalfa, 8 tons; oats, 75 bushels. The average for the 25 years has been: Wheat, 30 bushels; barley, 40 bushels; potatoes, 7 tons; alfalfa, 5 tons; oats, 50 bushels. I have not had a failure in my apple crop for 20 years. This is the best country I have ever seen for carrots, gooseber-ries and many other kinds of berries. Plums, prunes and peaches also do

C. Hernider ssys: "Having lived in this valley about twenty-five years, I think I know something of its capabilities and resources. In evidence of our excellent climate I have always had the best of health, my doctor bills for the quarter of a century being less than forty dellars. My wheat less than forty dollars. My wheat this year will yield forty bushels per acre; my alfalfa, four and one-half tons per acre. Our hogs are fattened in the alfalfa fields and the hog business is exceedingly profitable, no more profitable anywhere. The honey business also pays well; last season we sold in the Sacramento market one ton of honey which netted a profit of

J. M. Houston, ex-County Surveyor of Esmeralda and ex-County Commisof Esmeralda and ex-County Commis-sioner of Lyon county, says: "After a residence in this valley of twenty years I cheerfully endorse the soil and climate of this place. The soil will produce as good quality and as much in quantity of any kind of vegetables, cereals or fruit as are produced in a similar climate any where else on the cereals or fruit as are produced in a similar climate any where else on the Pacific coast. We are surrounded on the sides by mountains, hence proand agreeable to taste, perfactly safe, and all sides by mountains, hence promate in winter is milder and in comparison with the eastern States of the same latitude, and for the twenty years I have lived in this valley there has not been an annual average snow fall of exceeding three inches. For the period of twenty years there has been no such thing as a loss of stock by reason of the cold weather." SURFACE SOIL DEEP AND OF VARIED

> CHARACTER. Henry Wood, Clerk of Lyon county,

"Have lived in Mason Valley since the month of April, 1879, and have been engaged in farming continuously since that time. The surface soils of Mason Valley are deep and of varied character—adobe, black and white loam, sand and alluvial in nature. There is no valley of equal area on the Pacific Coast that affords a finer water supply for irrigating purposes than Mason Valley."

James Nichol, ex-County Commissioner, says:

"I think Mason Valley has no equal in the production of wheat, for here wheat has no rust, no smut and no cheat, and the production per acre at least is equal to that of any other place.

"I have had hops growing on my ranch here for twenty years and believe this to be the natural home of the hop vine. If cultivated here in the hop vine. If cultivated here in the hop vine. large tracts it would be profitable. It would be less expense to gather here than elsewhere, because of large numbers of Indians who work cheaply and

The GAZETTE has a large number of similar letters and statistics which will be published from time to time.

A Section That Is Looking Up. R. J. Laws, Superintendent of the C. & C. R. R., was here this morning. He says the mining industry is looking up in and around Hawthorne. ing up in and around Hawthorne. He says the the LaPanta is looking fine and that the mines around Maritta never looked better. The Fairmont Consolidated, near Lunning, is also developing a fine body of ore. Mr. Laws has unbounded confidence in the future of Lyon and Esmeralda counties. He says the country is far more prosperous than it has been for years, and now that the agricultural possibilities are receiving some attention, the outlook is exceedingly encouraging.

In illustration of what irrigati tainly a most inviting field for the does for the arid regions, attention is home-seeker, for no place on the coast called to the following: The valleys offers greater inducements for the in- of Idaho are more remote from the vestment of idle capital. The GAZETTE markets of the world than are the believes that 1,000 acres planted to more important ones of Nevada, and apples would in three years time re- yet in that inaccessible quarter, as about $15,000 to care for the 1,000 acres, and the third a like sum, making $60,000. The second year the investor would begin to get some of HIS MONEY BACK.

And the third year would yield a handsome profit. Nearly all the apples that California uses go from Wasbington, Oregon and Utah now and some of them even go from Minnesota and Wisconsin. With reasonable rates of transportation this State could supply as fine apples and pears as can be grown anywhere, and they would command as good prices in the market. The C. & C., V. & T. and Southern Pacific companies would not be supply of water through the new cannal. The Nampa Lumber and Irrigation Company have over one hundred miles of canal. Permanent water rights are sold at $8 per acre, after which they charge $1 per acre per year for water on ground actually irrigated. The company have a reservoir on the bluff just east of the town, and this is to become quite an attractive place. It covers about forty acres, and the water being fifteen feet deep, makes a nice place for boating. Nampa has taken on new life and is rapidly improving, and so are the lands around. Many orchards are being cultivated and planted. The other day a man sold 160 acres of land out a mile or two for $2,000, without a water right. That land was practi-cally worthless prior to the canal be-ing built."

Latest Sales of Nevada Cattle. The Drovers' Journal of Omaha of Aug. 10th says, of the cattle sold there by George D. Bliss of Humboldt county, as follows:

"Yesterday a train of California cattle were on sale which sold at $3 00; they were out of the same herd as those that sold here on July 14 at those that sold here on July 14 at $4 00, and, although not quite as good, show just about the amount the market has declined during that time on all grades of beef and shipping cattle except the very best dry fed grades. Of the many disasters with which man-kind has been visited, one of the worst is that class of ailments which originating simply with the inactivity of the kidneys and bisdder, causes such frightful loss of life. Under this appailing category come Bright's disease, diabetes, gravel, ordinary nephitis and cararrh of the bisdder. No class of organic maladies, against which medical skill is pitted, so often baffles the expert practitioner and sets his skill at naught. Easy it is, however to arrest these ailments at the start. The diuretic action of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is just sufficient to set the bladder and kidneys at work, preserve or rescue them from fatal inactivity without exciting them. The unmedicated stimulents of commerce excite without either strengthening or regulating. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does both. THE SCIENCE OF TRIFLES.

How the Clerical Portion of Diplomacy Is Conducted.

ner of Preparing and Sending Official Documents in the Department of

Ever since the department of state was first organized it has been the regulation that all its letters should be writ-ten on the same kind of paper—a fine blue-white linen—about the size of foolscap, Before beginning to write the it-hand edge of each sheet must be hild over for one inch and a half and that must not be permitted to engrouph upon this margin, in order that ore a copies may be taken to greater twicinge. In the British foreign ofher the style of handwriting employed is required to be just the same always, says: a writer in the Washington Star, and the particular affectation assumed in this matter is a series of dashy curlimones, with each pair of letters sepasted from their immediate neighbors. It would be interesting to know what ind-idual-centuries ago, very likelyoriginated this peculiar hand for perpetuation ever after. No such uniformity is alined at in Washington, the only objest sought being the execution of the notest and clearest script attainable Before the days of the telegraph it was chistomary to make each dispatch, for the sake of condensation, include as n lay topics as were to be communiented about but now the invarirale is to give each subje the separate letter. In old times; liable to search and capture on the high seas by one party or another to the conflict, all such documents were sent in triplicate, a copy on each of three ships, so that one might be sure to reach its destination. Modern cable improvements having done away with these perils no more than a single is ever transmitted. The old rule was that a minister addressing a note to the government to which he was accredited must never under any circumstances write more than four lines of the body of the letter on the first page; the rest of the space is to be taken up exclusively with titles and et cetera marks; but this has become obsolete. Even diplomacy progresses, and the time may yet arrive when the typewriter will be put into requisition for such purposes. All dispatches of international importance are written by Mr. Blaine with his own hand. Each communication of the sort he indites in the shape of a rough draft, which is apt to be full of corrections and interlineations. This goes to a copyist who produces it in a fair and beautiful script on the big sheets of a fine linen paper already described. Next it is copied into the record books, after the secretary of state has signed it; but if it is to be sent by telegraph, the pretty copy on linen paper is omitted, the record book only preserving a transcript of it for future reference, if needed. A single wire connects the office with the Western Union, and an operator is always on hand to receive and transmit messages to all parts of the world at ent govern ment rates. When the dispatches arrive, they are handed over by the chief clerk to the officials for whom they are properly intended, and such of them as require translation are given for that purpose to Mr. Thomas, the polyglot official translator for the department.

LA GRIPPE IN CHINA. Ten Thousand Persons Succumb to the Disease in One Day.

The grip has swept over the Chinese empire and hundreds of thousands of natives have gone down before the dread disease. It was in February that the grip invaded the densely populated ravages were felt the death rate increased to enormous proportions.

An American, who is in the Chinese customs service at Whampon, was at Whampon at the time the grip was car-rying away the Celestials by the thou-

"The Chinese did not know what discase had broken out in their midst, and hundreds of the natives I know were frightened to death," said he. "The Chinese physicians were unable to say what disease was causing the enormous increase in the death rate, and the result was a panic. The Mongolians imagined the evil spirit was demonstrating his wrath by sending a plague among them, and in order to head off the wicked fellow's intentions they went through the streets of all the large cities beating drums. The intention was to drum the evil spirit out of the country. "At Whampoa, which is ten miles from Canton, the natives became so alarmed that they took down the big drum which was built in the Joss house there, and thousands of people marched through the streets after the huge instrument, which was being pounded all the time by four or five husky Chinamen. From that time on the death rate decreased, and the superstitious imagined the disease had been drummed away.

"I talked with several American physicians who were traveling through the country and they said the disease was the grip. The symptons were exactly the same as the people who were afflicted in this country experi-enced. During one week in Canton at the time the disease was doing the most harm fully ten thousand people in that city alone were buried."

A Hard-Headed Negro In Williamstown, Mass., lives a negr whose claim to be one hundred and or years old does not constitute the whole of his right to fame. He was born wit an extra hard head and a horn over a inch in length on the front bone, an unremitting practice soon made hi brain box a terrible weapon. Durin the course of his long life he has kille rams, broken doors, smashed grind stones and murdered bulls by simpl butting them with his awful head.

Turkish Panatic There is said to be a good deal of un easiness among Christians in the Le vant at the signs of increasing fanaticism among the Turks. Four Christian boys and a Christian officer in the Turkish army have lately been found dead under circumstances leading to the belief that they were sacrificed to religious bigotry. "WHO BREAKS PAYS."

How an Artist Was Led Into a Trap by His Pupils.

In Paris there lives an eminent painter who is economical and sententious, says an exchange. The other day one of the students broke a pane of glass in the studio window and replaced it tem-porarily by pasting a sheet of paper over the aperture.

When the painter came down next morning he thrust his cane through the makeshift with the remark: "He that breaks pays." None of the class, how-ever, took the hint, and the next morn-ing another sheet of paper was basted across the window. It met the same fate. And so on the next day, and a on the fourth.

On the fifth day, when the artist came down, there was the paper as be-fore. Fire flashed from his eyes, and roaring: "He that breaks, pays!" he drove his cane through the paper-and through the pane of glass behind it that had been put in by the students, and then carefully pasted over with a sheet of paper.

Badly Rusted Coronets. Disgraced and blackguard peers are now quite a strong body in England, the Chicago Herald. One of the Irish earls, who was a corporal in the Life Guards before he succeeded to his title, did six months of hard labor for some breach of military discipline. Another peer, an English one, and the son of a lord high chancellor, can never show his face in the house of lords again. He committed a disgusting crime. He has dropped his title and is now clerk to a firm of auctioneers in Australia. The marquis of Aylesbury still affects his costermonger suit on odd occasions, and likes to make a bet that he will sell a barrow of greens as quickly as any hawker in Whitechapel. By the way, it is interesting to note in the peerage for 1891 that the march-ioness once known as Dolly Tester now figures as "Dorothy Julia, daughter of T. Hasely, Esq." Tester's papa was about as unmitigated a ruffian of the tough tribe as England has ever pro-
